

MCOMBS TO PRACTICE LAW IN NEW YORK CITY

National Democratic Chairman Again
Refuses Pariah Post—Confers with President.

SECRETARY M'ADOO ALSO SEEN

William F. McCombs, chairman of the Democratic National Committee, after an hour's conference with President Wilson yesterday, set at rest a number of persistent rumors regarding his future plans. His most notable announcement was the reiteration of his determination to remain in the United States. He will not accept the Ambassadorship to France.

In reply to questions on this score, Mr. McCombs said: "The question of the Ambassadorship was settled some time ago. The honor of representing the American government at Paris I consider a great one, but I feel that I owe it to myself to devote myself to my business. I shall return to the practice of law in New York, from which I largely have been drawn for more than two years; in fact, ever since the name of Mr. Wilson was first brought forward as an avowed Presidential candidate."

The move of Mr. McCombs which occasioned considerable surprise in political Washington was that subsequent to his White House call he went to the Metropolitan Club to meet Secretary of the Treasury McAdoo. For some months subsequent to the election of President Wilson Mr. McCombs and Mr. McAdoo were on terms very far from cordial.

Mr. McCombs called at the Capitol yesterday, where he held a conference with Representative Doremus of Michigan, chairman of the Democratic National Congressional Committee.

Mr. McCombs will return to New York for Monday. On Tuesday he again will be in Washington, and with his bride, formerly Miss Dorothy Williams, of this city, will attend the White House wedding Tuesday afternoon.

JAMES A. TWOHEY ENDS LIFE IN CANADA

Telegram from Ottawa Says Washington Lawyer Cut His Throat with Razor.

Ottawa, Canada, Nov. 21.—The body of James A. Twohey, an attorney of Washington, D. C., was found dead in a room in the Grand Union Hotel early this evening.

A letter that lay on a table was addressed to Mrs. James A. Twohey, 2179 Eighteenth Street, Washington. The man had committed suicide by cutting his throat with a razor.

Mr. Twohey arrived in Ottawa on Wednesday and was taken from the Canadian Pacific Railway station by the railway constable to the hotel, apparently ill. W. L. Scott, solicitor for the Canadian Pacific Railway here, was unaware of Mr. Twohey's presence in the city until informed of his death, and he said he did not know the nature of the business which brought Mr. Twohey to the city.

The coroner is investigating, but there will be no inquest.

A telegram was received by the police last night from W. M. Ross, chief constable at Ottawa, Ontario, stating that James A. Twohey, a Washington lawyer, had committed suicide there by cutting his throat with a razor, while Ross notified at the request of Constable Ross.

John T. Twohey, of the Stratford Hotel, brother of the dead man, communicated with a brother, Edward H. Twohey of St. Albans, Vt., who will take charge of the body. Mr. Twohey was one of the best known lawyers in Washington. He had offices in the Union Trust Building. Mr. Twohey was on his way back to Washington from a business trip to West Canada. He was born in Burlington, Vt., forty-three years ago. Besides his brother, he is survived by his wife and five children. Margaret, aged twelve; Cynthia, aged nine; James, aged seven; Elizabeth, aged five, and Grace, aged three.

SCIENTIST DESCRIBES IDEAL "HELLO" GIRL

Dr. G. A. Blumenthal Says Phone Operators Should Have Artistic Temperament.

Artistic temperament, a fine ear, attentiveness, intelligence, and a beautifully modulated voice are the prime qualities of an ideal "hello" girl, according to Dr. Gustave A. Blumenthal, the psychologist of this city. This was the subject of a lecture given at the Washington University, during his lecture on "Vocal Analysis."

And despite the high marriage "mortality" of the phone girls, Dr. Blumenthal claims that the ideal telephone girl does not make a good housewife. These statements, he said, were the result of his experiments conducted with 1,000 telephone girls of New York City, two years ago, and also experiments conducted by Harvard psychologists.

"Phone girls should not map out the professions for their children," he said. "Children should be examined by a vocational bureau to decide for what the child is fitted. Take a person with an artistic temperament and make a doctor out of him. He is not a good doctor; he's an artistic doctor, and is apt to cut off a leg or an arm while in one of these artistic chaps." He is obtaining money under false pretenses.

"A genius is in the same class psychologically speaking, with a degenerate. The only difference between a genius and a lunatic is that the lunatic is kept confined, while the genius gets paid $500 a night to show his artistic temperament."

The rising up of men and women also was discussed by the lecturer. Whether a man was cut out to be a porter, or a doctor could be ascertained by study. He stated that he knew of lawyers who should have been blacksmiths. "A man should love his work, and his work will love him," concluded the speaker.

STOLEN GOODS FOUND BY ALEXANDRIA POLICE

Tobacco, Tools, and Other Articles Located Through Efforts of Pinkerton Detectives.

RAILROAD ROBBERY SOLVED

Alexandria, Va., Nov. 21.—Two large wagon loads of cigars, cigarettes, tobacco, tools, and other articles, supposed to have been stolen from a freight car of the Washington-Southern Railway Company at Potomac Railroad yards, Alexandria County, have been recovered by the members of the police department, two Pinkerton detectives, and a number of railroad detectives, who have been working on the case for some time past.

The supposed loot was recovered at the establishment of George A. Rice, a policeman, at the southeast corner of Third and Spruce Streets.

Incidental with the raid the police arrested Edward Waters, bartender for Finch, Edward Harrison, Charles Bortell, and John Fawcett, the latter being arrested in Annapolis early this morning and subsequently brought here by Policemen Ferguson.

The prisoners are charged with the large car of goods from the Washington-Southern Railway Company in the warrant issued for their arrest. There are also two other charged with the case, the names of which are not known. It is said that the case may be further investigated. Waters was represented by Attorney Robinson Moncre. He is trying to arrange to give a bail bond. Cononwealth Attorney R. G. Brent was present in behalf of the State.

In the raid on Finch's place yesterday afternoon 186 boxes of cigars, containing twenty-five cigars each, were recovered. The four men arrested were brought before Justice Caton in the police court this morning and committed for ten days in order that the case may be further investigated. Waters was represented by Attorney Robinson Moncre. He is trying to arrange to give a bail bond. Cononwealth Attorney R. G. Brent was present in behalf of the State.

The wheelbarrows, the police say, bear the stamp of the Alexandria Police and the cigars were found on the top of the wheelbarrows. Several rolls of felt roofing are supposed to have been stolen from W. T. Gilliam.

It is stated by the police that the cigars were found on the top of the wheelbarrows. Several rolls of felt roofing are supposed to have been stolen from W. T. Gilliam.

The other articles were found in a shed and outhouses of the establishment. It is stated that Harrison will be a witness for the State in the case, and is held as such.

For the past three weeks Pinkerton detectives have been in Alexandria investigating car robberies that have occurred here and at the Potomac Railroad yards. The railroad company loses thousands of dollars annually as a result of robberies here, it is stated. The two Pinkerton men who worked on the case were John W. Erb, superintendent of the Pinkerton National Detective Agency, Richmond, and Capt. A. G. Smith, Philadelphia.

Special agents of the railroad company who also were engaged in working on the case were A. F. Camaday and Reynolds. They, of course, were assisted by the members of the local police department.
